- Articulate solutions that can be used with clients these clients and the tangible impact these can have.
- Understand how you can satisfy your Consumer Duty obligations through tax planning conversation.

James Alcock, Octopus Investments

10:25 - 11:00 Is your CIP fit for duty?

Learning outcomes

- To reinforce understanding and awareness of consumer duty with a focus on investment management.
- To examine whether investment decisions previously made are still fit for new investors.
- To learn more about closed ended funds and how they can be incorporated with a model portfolio.

Our active range of model portfolios offers something different to the traditional basket of collective and so with the advent of consumer duty and the focus around propositions, pricing, value for money our content is both timely and interesting from a learning perspective.

The content in each session has been carefully selected and can be considered for both structured and unstructured CPD hours, depending how this activity addressed each individual's personal development needs.

Structured CPD is the undertaking of any formal learning activity designed to meet a specific learning outcome (this is what an individual is expected to know, understand or do as a result of his or her learning).

Unstructured CPD is any activity an individual considers has met a learning outcome, but which may not have been specifically designed to meet their development needs.

Attendance at this event can be included as part of your CPD requirements should you consider it relevant to your professional development needs.
